

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

AUDITIONS JULY 24, 12 - 4 PM

Bernard

Male, 30-50

An American architect and lothario who resides in Paris. Bernard is the quintessential 1960's playboy who is managing three love affairs at the same time. He is a charming, hustling, lovable rascal who has no idea just how in over his head he really is.

Berthe

Female, 30-70

Bernard's French Housekeeper. Berthe has honed her French existential brand of sarcasm to a T. She is the classic grumbling, rye, clever, and ever-complaining house maid who in the end knows how to play her cards right to get what she wants.

Robert

Male, 30-50

Bernard's old school chum from Wisconsin. Robert has lived a simple somewhat sheltered life in Wisconsin. He is sweet, unobtrusive, and shy but turns quickly nervous and clumsy when trying to help Bernard conceal his secrets when circumstances demand.

Gabriella

Female, 20-40

An Italian air hostess and fiancée to Bernard. Gabriella is in love with Bernard but her jealousy can run deep. She is sentimental, lusty, nurturing, and loving but when her jealousy is aroused her temper can flair in the most dramatic fashion.

Gloria

Female, 20-40

An American air hostess and fiancée to Bernard. Gloria is looking to settle down with the perfect man and Bernard fits the bill, which to her is pure bliss. She is chipper, friendly, and take-charge if not a little on the sensual opportunistic side.

Gretchen

Female, 20-40

A German air hostess and fiancée to Bernard. Gretchen yearns for extreme passion and has found the perfect fix in Bernard, or so she thinks. She is strong, dominating, and caring but can become quite thin-skinned particularly when her feelings of passion are conflicted.
