#3 MINOR TURN

Start

KARNAK

Tonight I shall speak of these teenagers, whose tales ended abruptly on a roller coaster in a small Canadian town in the middle of nowhere. The Saint Cassian Chamber Choir.

And my part in this story...
I read all of the children's fortunes
I felt their hopes,
thoughts, dreams,

KARNAK (CONT'D)

...knowing they would board the doomed
roller coaster and could tell them nothing.
I even suggested that they ride the Cyclone.
On Monday, September 14th,
they would board the Cyclone roller coaster at 6:17pm.
At 6:19pm, this same roller coaster's front axle would break, causing it to derail at the apex of the loop-de-loop, hurtling the children to their deaths.
