

RS#7 Doralee, Dwayne

Start

DORALEE

I'm as nice as I know how to be down at that office and everyone still treats me like the bastard at the family reunion.

DWAYNE

Forget all about them, honey.

DORALEE

But Dwayne, it hurts my feelin's. They all seem to be judgin' me on how I look.

DWAYNE

I think you look real good. If they weren't a bunch of women, I'd go down there and punch 'em all out for you.

DORALEE

You would wouldn't you?

DWAYNE

Course I would, you're my girl. You go down there tomorrow and show 'em what a great gal you are. Remember, Texans never quit.

(The following song plays with the three women in their respective spaces.)
